

An Invitation to Women of Advent

The women of Advent are invited to a series of gatherings around the theme of "Developing Women Leaders for the Church." Two introductory meetings are planned. The first will be held on Wednesday evening, June 20, from 7:00 PM to 8:30 PM. A second introductory meeting is tentatively set for early August for those women who are unable to participate in June. Further gatherings will be scheduled based upon input from participants at the introductory sessions. Karen Parker and Lou Ann Trost will lead these gatherings. The introductory meetings will include current Advent leaders: Pastor Anita and Council President Ed Merrell.
